few behaviors that indicate your team is a pre-referral team rather than a PST: if you require 30 minutes per student, The School Poetry Book 25 of those minutes are spent discussing the problem and 5 are spent brainstorming solutions, if the referring teacher spends the entire time making his or her case that the student should be "tested," or if the primary question that the team answers is whether or not the student should be referred for a special education eligibility evaluation rather than how to help the student. Learn to Blog on at.
