Improvement -- N. When taking the recording into consideration which unfortunately cannot be demonstrated in this written presentation all of the phonemes of the German words are pronounced in a way that conforms to Russian rather than German phonology. In the same vein, most of the books already published on the subject continue to favor the definition of the method as therapy. It entails removing all or part of the: . By contrast, the heroes of his later works - perhaps because they are themselves less engaged in political struggle - tend to survive but only as observers Such characters, however, remain dogged by a sense they have done something wrong, and this, in turn, leads to a need for public or private confession of some sort It might be added that, in the later books especially, the remorse that such characters suffer is not only a generalized philosophical anguish but derives as well from their guilt -in an ethical, not a religious sense - for specific acts they have committed or failed to commit.
