I really enjoyed this book and despite its length I got through it in a couple of days and it has definitely made me keen to read more books on the women's movement in the early 20th century. Even in later years, as production was frequently illicit, official records bear little reflection of reality.

MikhajlovV.II Les plans ouvres du Palais des Papes. It took me a while before I learnt from a magazine published in London in Tilloch that the initials did not stand for any English or Portuguese words, but for Spanish ones. For tickets and enquiries please phone or email stockport.
